3-01/040.69 - Honesty Policy

Department members are held to the highest standards of integrity and ethics. In particular, honesty and trustworthiness are of paramount importance to the credibility and integrity of all Department members. Honesty and maintaining the trust of those we serve depend on candor, forthrightness, sincerity, and accuracy.

Dishonesty destroys trust and violates Department policy. Examples of dishonesty and violations of trust include not only false statements, but also deliberate distortions of the truth; intentional exaggerations, concealment of or failure to disclose material facts, observations, or recollections, and failure to make full, complete and truthful statements when required.

Department members who violate this section are subject to discipline up to and including discharge.

3-01/040.70 - Dishonesty/False Statements

Members shall not make false statements or commit any other violations of the honesty policy, section 3-01/040.69, when questioned, interviewed, or in reports or documents submitted. Department members who violate this section are subject to discipline up to and including discharge.

3-01/040.75 - Dishonesty/Failure to Make Statements And/Or Making False Statements During Departmental Internal Investigations

False statements and any other form of dishonesty during an official Department internal investigation or inquiry shall, absent extenuating circumstances, result in discharge.

Failure or refusal to make statements when ordered during Department internal investigations constitutes insubordination and shall, absent extenuating circumstances, result in discharge.
